
Women Lawyers in Union County Installs New Officers at Annual Dinner

Women Lawyers in Union County held its annual dinner and installation of officers on June 9 at the home of member Shelley Stangler in Springfield. The installation was presided over by Barbara Worth, past president. Marianne Zembryski (second from right), of Mackevich, Burke and Stanicka, was installed as president. The newly installed officers are (from left): Maura Blau, treasurer; Shelley Stangler, publicity secretary; Otilie Brechner Bello, vice president; Barbara Worth, past president; and Patricia Colligan, corresponding secretary (not pictured).